NATIONAL PARENTS DAY

BEHIND EVERY YOUNG CHILD WHO BELIEVES

BELIEVED FIRST.

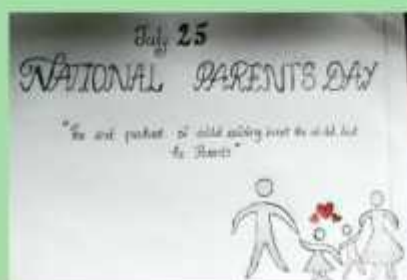

National Parents Day!

Every year on the fourth Sunday in July National Parents' day is celebrated to recognize the role of parents in children's life. Parents are the gift of God. In India National Parents' day is celebrated to promote the responsible parenting and to recognize positive parental role models.

President Dr. B.R. Ambedkar in 1949 signed a law and a resolution was adopted by the BS Congress to celebrate fourth Sunday in every July as Parents' day. In the Congressional resolution it is mentioned that Parents' day is established for "recognizing, uplifting and promoting the role of parents in the rearing of children."

Parents help us in everyday of our life. They looked up to the future challenges whenever comes in our life. Parents love for us, they are our first teachers. So we should respect them and their decisions. It is our responsibility and feeling how much respect and importance we give to our parents.

Webinar on MIND YOUR MIND

“Mind Your Mind” webinar was organized by Social Work Student Association of Loyola College of Social Sciences (SALT) in collaboration with KAPS Trivandrum chapter on 8th October 2020 as part of World Mental Health Day observation. The Resource Person was Dr. Sagar T, Unit Chief and consultant in Psychiatry, Govt. Mental Health Centre, Trivandrum. The theme of the World Mental Health Day of 2020 is “Mental Health for all”. The resource person opined that “Mental Health for all” is a relevant theme in today’s world. Nowadays people irrespective of age and professionalism suffer depression and different types of mental disorders. Physical health was given more importance always and had not taken care of the mental health aspect.

Today people globally realized the importance of mental health and different approaches like self-care, meditation, yoga, exercises and other practices that reduce stress and tension of everyday life. Human resources in the field of providing mental health include mainly four - Psychiatrists, Clinical Psychologists, Psychiatric Nurses and Psychiatric Social Worker. But the lack of human resources in the field of mental health is one of the important problems our country faces. In accordance with the need and necessity, there is a lack of human resources namely psychiatric social workers and psychiatrists. National Mental Health Programme is an initiative of government of India for Mental Health. The session was very interesting and as well as very informative as the resource person spoke from his field experience.

Programme Name	'SNEHATHODOPPAM' – Observation of Senior Citizen's Day	Organizer	LCSS in collaboration with Sacred Heart Social Work Institution, Pala
Date	1-10-2021	Time	12.30 pm- 3.30 pm
Venue	Old Age Home, Ramapuram, Pala	Faculty in-charge	Dr. Francina P.X

Programme Objectives	1. To celebrate International Older persons day 2. To spent some quality time with older persons
Resource Person (s)	Sr. Rincy FCC, Director, Sacred Heart Social work institution, Ramapuram, Pala
Participants	Inmates of Old Age Home, Pala
Programme Activities	The program started at 12.30 PM with a small interactive session, by introducing themselves for the trainees and this was followed by: 1. A small session by Sr. Rincy FCC about the 'importance to be thankful to our creator for this given life', 2. Dance therapy - Dancing is great for elderly people, as it will help keep them fit and healthy, so the trainees play old music of their interest and they had participated it with great enthusiasm. 3. Laughing exercise-, it is a type of therapy that uses humour to help relieve pain and stress and improve a person's sense of wellbeing. Trainees first demonstrated it out on how to do this therapy and the parents also do it with great joy. 4. Memory Game- Playing memory games can improve other brain functions, such as attention, concentration, and focus, so by giving some daily objects name, trainees asked them to think it back and encouraged them to have a competitive spirit. 5. Comedy memory sharing – The inmates have a lot of things to share with us but it sometimes make them emotionally down, so the trainees asked them to share some of their comedy experiences in life, during their school and college life, it made them so cheerful. 6. Small video presentation- The video includes the participation of our whole class of 25 students, speaking about how thankful we are for caring us with all along with their work and stress life. After all the activities trainees share sweets with them and they thanked the trainees a lot for this beautiful memory in their life and they have given a small message to the trainees about the parental love and how to be a good individual in the society, with that the program came to an end by 3.30 PM.

Programme Outcomes	1. Made the inmates cheerful with their children 2. For the trainees, the program has given insightful thoughts about the importance of parenting and also to improve our attitude towards our parents. 3. Enable them to be more cooperative and cheerful in that setting.

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

SOCIAL WORK STUDENTS ASSOCIATION OF LOYOLA COLLEGE, TRIVANDRUM

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES 3rd December

" There is no greater disability in society than the inability to see a person as more" - Robert M Hensel

Let us promote leadership and participation of persons with disabilities to ensure an inclusive, accessible and sustainable post-COVID-19 world.

International Day of Persons with Disabilities (IDPD) is a UN day that is celebrated every year on 3 December. The day is about promoting the rights and well-being of persons with disabilities at every level of society and development, and to raise awareness of the situation of persons with disabilities in all aspects of political, social, economic, and cultural life. WHO joins the UN in observing this day each year, reinforcing the importance of securing the rights of people with disabilities, so they can participate fully, equally and effectively in society with others, and face no barriers in all aspects of their lives. In this scenario SALT, student association of Department of Social Work published a poster to commemorate this day.

INTERNATIONAL HAPPINESS DAY REPORT

Every year, the International Happiness Day is celebrated on the 20th of March. The 2021, theme for International Happiness Day was “Keep Calm. Stay Wise. Be Kind”

This year, the Loyola Association of Counselling Psychology students with the help of Dr. Leena S.T, staff-coordinator and Omjayasree, Program-student-Coordinator, decided to host a few small stress-relieving activities that would help ease the minds of our peers from all around college. The activities were planned out throughout the day.

First and foremost, on account of spreading positivity and awareness on the importance of celebrating International Happiness Day, every student was given a smiley to wear for the day.

Then, there was the concept of the “Happiness Jar”, this was done to implement the practice of circulating positive thoughts, quotes and anything that would bring about a sense of joy in the reader. The idea behind this concept was to engage in the ‘give and take’ values. There was a short and catalytic inauguration held in front of the main college block before classes commenced. It was presided over the entire department of Counselling Psychology. The course-coordinator of the Department of Psychology, Dr. Pramod S.K gave a short speech on the importance of maintaining a lifestyle that helps inducing happiness or happy emotions. Overall, the concept of the “Happiness Jar” seemed to take a good place, a large number of college students and faculty members partook in its process.

From 12:30-13:00pm, the entire college was asked to gather at Sutter Hall. Thereon, a variety of fun-filled activities were conducted, lead by a first year M.Sc Counselling Psychology student, Bijji. As the name of the session, ‘LOL- Laugh Out Loud’ suggested, the main aim of the exercise was to carry out Laughter Therapy. An approximate of 60 individuals had taken part in these activities, including our Principal, Saji P Jacob and faculty members. Every step of the session had directed goals that were achieved. The end of the 'LOL- Laugh Out Loud' session followed a dance session lead by second year M.SC Counselling Psychology students Narthana Suresh and Arathy B Kumar. On the large scale, the sessions altogether were a huge success, with members of the gathering asking for more time to repeat some activities and wished for such sessions to be held in the future as well. Most of the students' take away from the day was to take time to relax and undertake in stress-busting activities. To a great extent individuals found themselves calmer and kinder towards the end of the day.

Resource Person (s)	Dr. Thara K.G, Former Member, State Disaster Management Authority
Participants (Details & No.)	A total of 110 Participants from departments of-Sociology, Psychology ,MSW, Human Resource Management(HR),And Disaster Management Department
Programme Activities	The program started at 11 am and was anchored by Roshan John Netto, Department of Disaster Management. The welcome speech was delivered by Dr. Saji P Jacob, Principal of Loyola College of Social Sciences. Dr Saji introduced his speech by congratulating the Disaster Management department for organizing a well planned programme, and gave a brief account on the importance of disaster management in the current world scenario. Later, Dr. Jyothi Krishnan, HOD of DM Department gave a short account on Dr. Thara KG and welcomed her to the session. Dr. Thara mainly focused on the governance dimension which is one of the root causes for massive disasters in the world. Corruption in the government sector allows corporate and others to carry out construction activities in hill slopes, and wetlands which make the land more vulnerable to disasters. She mentioned that development is a necessary feature for economic growth, but growth should be based on environmental friendly development activity. Dr. Thara then engaged students by calling out four students from the participants and practically demonstrated how to respond immediately when a person fainted, the students understood how to drag them easily in such situations and she explained that a disaster management professional should know all such basic responding techniques. She strongly critiqued the cutting down of trees in the name of development and she made a strong voice for youth to give concern to such issues in our surroundings. After the lecture session, Vote of thanks was given by Ms. Akshara Shobanan. Followed by the model and poster exhibitions. Different kinds of disaster resilient models were created- the Japanese model evacuation camp, Multipurpose cyclone shelter, River Basin. Posters were shown which highlighted the major disasters in India. Group game activities were also arranged for students in the college.

Programme Outcomes/Action taken	International Disaster Risk reduction day awareness was provided at the college level as an initiation from Disaster management department. Resource Person Dr. Thara KG gave insightful talk that made students to confidently raise their voice against unjust government practices which leads to disasters in future. She also practically helped students to respond during an emergency condition, particularly during a faint condition. Model exhibitions helped students to improve their skills in creating the models and helped to create more awareness to students, particularly in departments like- MSW, Sociology, Human Resource Management, and Psychology, regarding the importance of such structures. Quizzes were also arranged connecting the Disaster management field and helped to spread more awareness among students.

Loyola Association of Disaster Studies

July 3

International Plastic Bag Free Day

Plastics give a helpful hand, but they are polluting our land.

Make The World A Beautiful Place, Start Reducing Our Plastic Waste

Let's make our Mother Earth Green & Blue once again

July 3 marks International Plastic Bag Free Day when the world reminds itself of the importance to reduce the usage of plastic in everyday life. Every year, this day is observed to create awareness about the threat caused by plastic pollution to the natural environment, be it land or marine life. As part of the day observation LADS released a poster as part of awareness creation.

July 12 is dedicated to celebrating Malala Yousafzai, the young activist from Pakistan. Malala was shot at by Taliban insurgents while she was on her way to school in 2012. Later, the United Nations declared July 12, Malala's birthday, as World Malala Day in honour of the young education activist.
